1974 Man

Of The Year

Mr. Richard Smith,

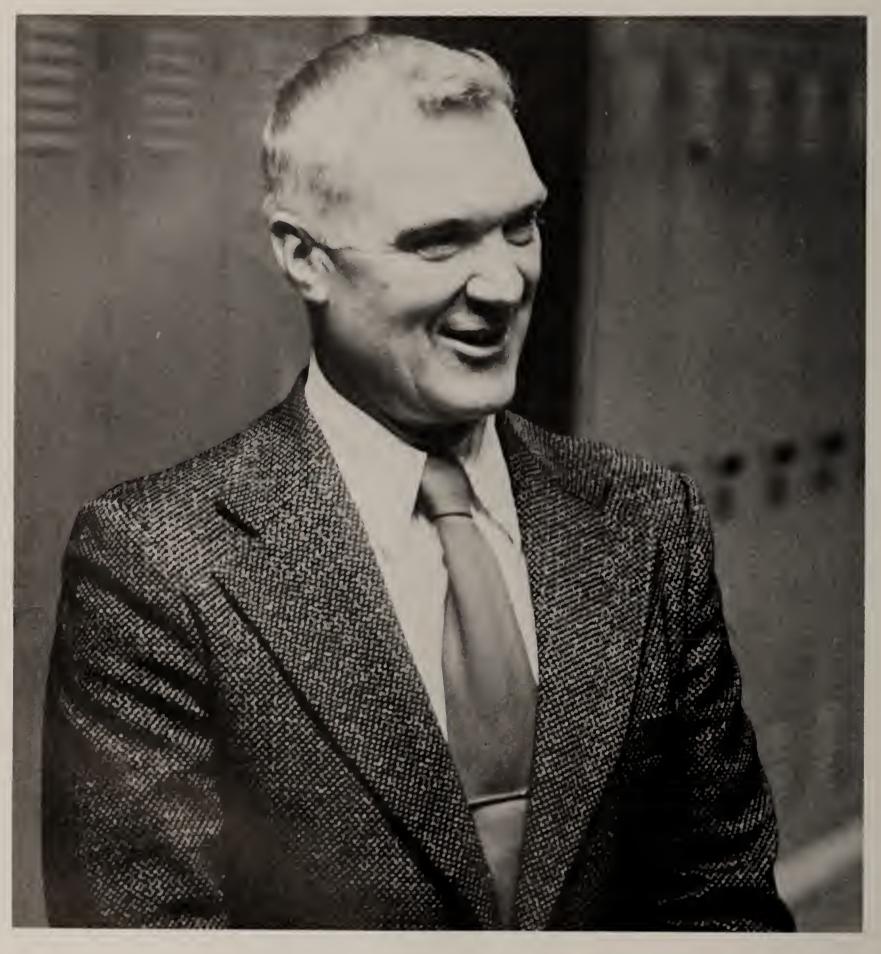

The senior class at Somerset High School would like to extend our appreciation to you for the fine talent you possess in making your classes interesting as well as informative. This important element combined with the spirit and enthusiasm which you exhibit in and outside the classroom does not go unnoticed by the student body. The extra effort you exert is well appreciated by the senior class. We are honored to dedicate these pages to you. Thank you.

Sincerely, Class of 1974

Mr. Carl McDermott

To the Class of 1974,

You have been citizens of the Somerset High School community and you must now go on to assume your places of responsibility and productivity in a larger community whether it be further schooling or the world of work.

Each day will continue to present new challenges that must be met if you are to attain your goals in life. Meet them with enthusiasm and with faith in your convictions.

Your editorial staff is to be commended for the very fine book representing your class history at Somerset High School. May it serve to remind you of a dedicated faculty who will long remember the class of 1974.

> Sincerely yours, Carl W. McDermott

I ain't lookin to fight with you, frighten you or uptighten you, drag you down or bring you down, chain you down or bring you down.

I ain't lookin to block you up, shock, or knock, or lock you up, analyze, categorize you, finalize you, or advertise you.

I don't want to straight-face you, race, or chase you, track or trace you, or disgrace you or displace you, or define you, or confine you.

I don't want to meet your kind, make you spin or do you in, or select you, or dissect you, or inspect you, or reject you.

I don't want to fake you out, take, or shake or forsake you out, I ain't lookin for you to feel like me, see like me, or be like me.

All I really want to do is baby be friends with you.

DISTRICT

The Southeastern District festival, which was held on January 17 and 18, was hosted by Somerset High School. The festival involved 500 students from all over Southeastern Mass. This district includes Cape Cod and towns as far north as Wellesly and Higham. The chorus was the largest of the groups with 200 participating and was represented by Ken Brown, Dawn Bolton, Rick Boulanger, and David Cucinotta.

The orchestra and band, both involving 150 students, were represented by Liz Cabral, David Freitas, Cheryl Miranda, David Paine, Angela Schultz, Valerie Renaud, Philip Renaud and Janet Wilkins. All participants were auditioned in late October at Bourne High School.

The festival provides a chance for the best musicians in Southeastern Mass. to perform together and to meet people with the same interests. It is a great honor for Somerset High to host this festival and many long hours of practice and preparation went into the fine concert which was held on Saturday afternoon, January 8.

Somerset Jazz Band directed by Mr. Robert Perry

Show Group directed by Mr. Kiah O'Brien

Chorus directed by Mr. Bruce Maggs

Symphonic Band directed by Mr. Robert Perry

For the first time the majorettes participated in a competition that was held at Silver Lake Regional High School on March 13th. They placed third after putting on a fine performance. They were also selected as the most spirited group present.

The music department has been extremely active this year. The marching band, led by Mr. Perry as director, Mr. St. Laurent as assistant director and Steve Quinn as president, began the season with a trip to New York, with all members participating in the Columbus Day Parade. The organization has also been active in local parades and added spirit to football games and rallies.

The Friends of Music, a parent organization, has helped finance many trips and has aided the department in many other ways. Mrs. Mary Zablocka and Mrs. Charles Chace have coordinated the trips for many years and have done a fine job organizing the many functions the department has been involved in.

There are many smaller but important groups within the music department. The Brass Choir, Woodwind Choir, String Ensemble, Percussion Ensemble and the Classical Guitar Quartet, a student lead ensemble directed by Rick Boulanger, gives students valuable experience in small ensemble playing. The Men's Chorus, Girls' Glee, Madrigal Singers, Concert Choir and Chorus are all vital to the department and offer different types of vocal experiences. All of the vocal organizations are directed by Mr. Bruce Maggs and he is assisted by Paula Macomber, who is the president of Concert Choir. The Symphonic Band, Orchestra and Concert Band give everyone a chance to be involved in the instrumental program. The Symphonic Band is comparable to the Concert Choir in that both organizations are made up of a selected group of auditioned students.

A different type of entertainment is provided by AAD Inc., the show group, and the Jazz Band. Both groups performed many times and are in great demand for many civic functions. The Show Group is led by Kiah O'Brien and president Ric Schofield, while the Jazz Band is directed by Robert Perry and president Ed Nunes.

Four groups represented S.H.S. on a concert tour to Plattsburgh, N.Y., Montpelier, Vt., and Northfield, Vt. The Symphonic Band, Concert Choir, Show Group and Jazz Band performed a total of 6 concerts at various schools on this tour in March. A concert was performed at the State House in Montpelier which brought honor to all groups participating.

All the groups involved in the music department have worked very hard and the department's successful year testifies to this fact. Many students participate in the department's activities and receive great pleasure from them. The music staff has done a fine job this year and special thanks should be given to Mr. Robert Perry and Mr. Bruce Maggs and all the others who helped make it such a fine year.

No man is an island No man stands alone Each man's joy is joy to me Each man's grief is my own.

We need one another So I will defend Each man as my brother Each man as my friend.

Field Hockey — 1973

Pride best describes this year's number one Field Hockey Team. For the first time in the School's history the team attended Mount Pocono Camp the summer before the season.

This experience and excellent coaching by Sheila P. Fitzgerald brought the team to be the league champs.

The team, tri-captained by Elizabeth Langfield, Denise Medeiros and Beth Snyder ended their season with 10 wins, 0 loses and 2 ties.

Cross Country — 1973

The Raiders 1973 Cross Country team led by Coach Richard Bernardo experienced a season of great enthusiasm and moderate success. The season was characterized by luck and ability in the big meets and hard luck and bizarre events in losing three dual meets. Captain Randy Osga led the team in achieving second place in the Massachusetts State Division III meet. The other scorers were Ray Leroux, Paul Bradbury, Paul Petit, and Brian Gallant.

In addition to the 15 male members, this year's cross country team included 3 women. Cheryl Cox, Sue Galib and Collette Lapointe, all seniors, were with the team for only one short season. It is possible though, that they have rewritten the whole history of Somerset Cross Country!

Faded photograph, covered now with lines and creases;
Tickets torn in half, memories in bits and pieces,
Traces of love long ago.
Ribbons from her hair, souvenirs of days together;
The ring she used to wear, pages from an old love letter,
Traces of love long ago.
I close my eyes and say a prayer
That in her heart she'll still find
A trace of love still there
Somewhere . . .

Freedom

Faces . . . pleasant,
Surprised, posed,
and priceless.
The faces of our friends . . .
caught in a moment . . .
captured for our memory.

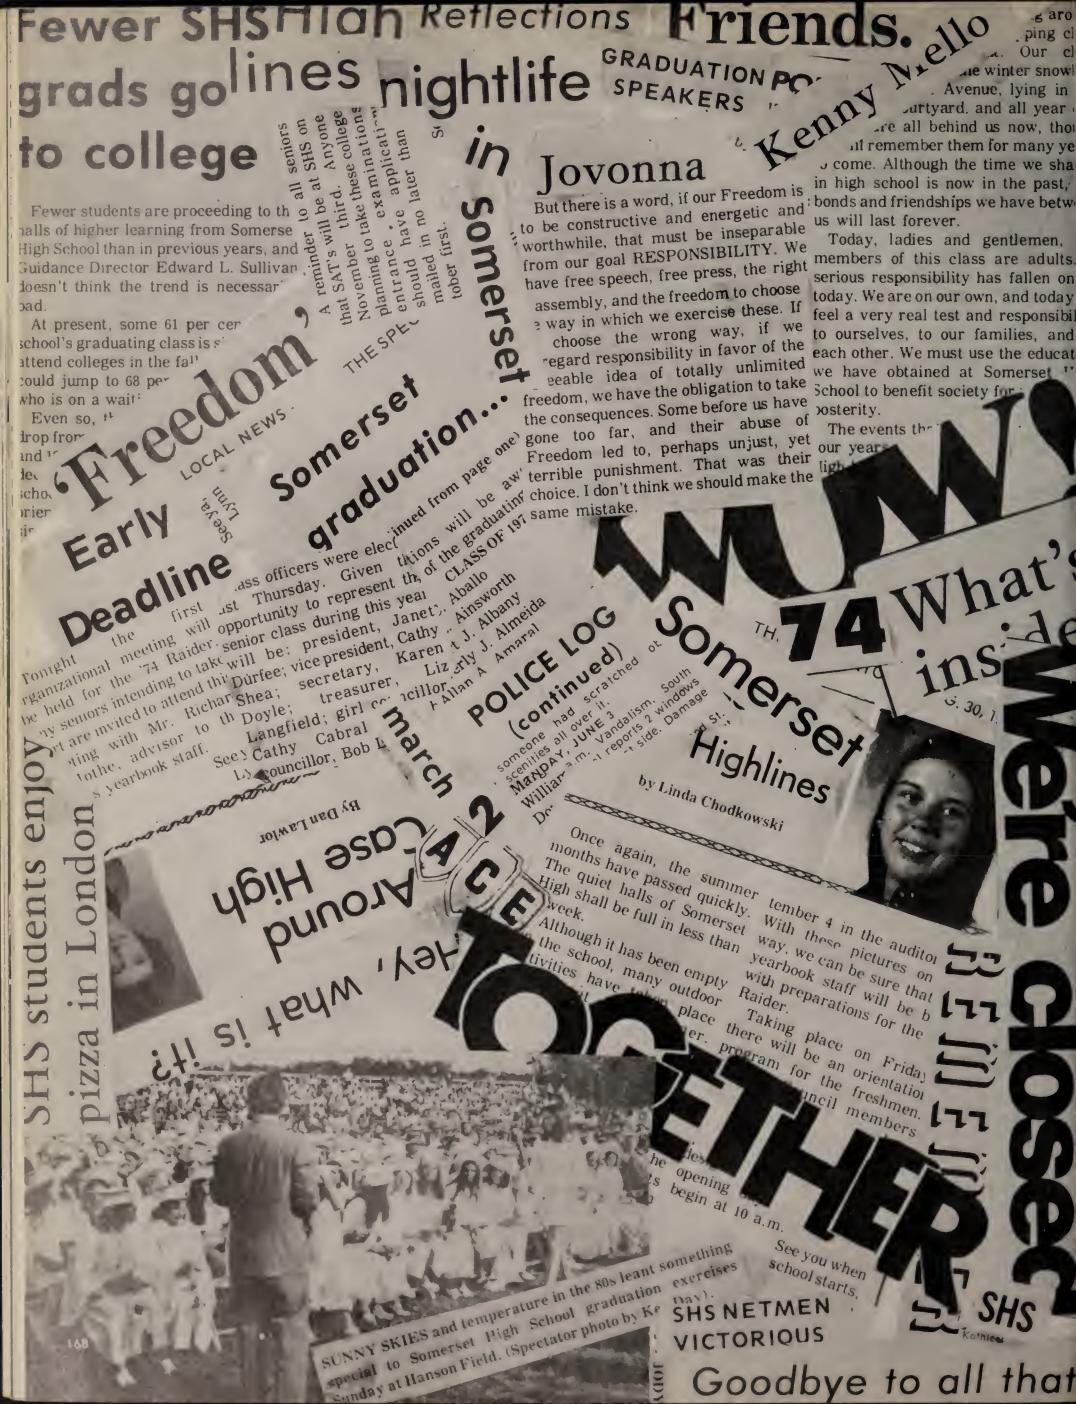

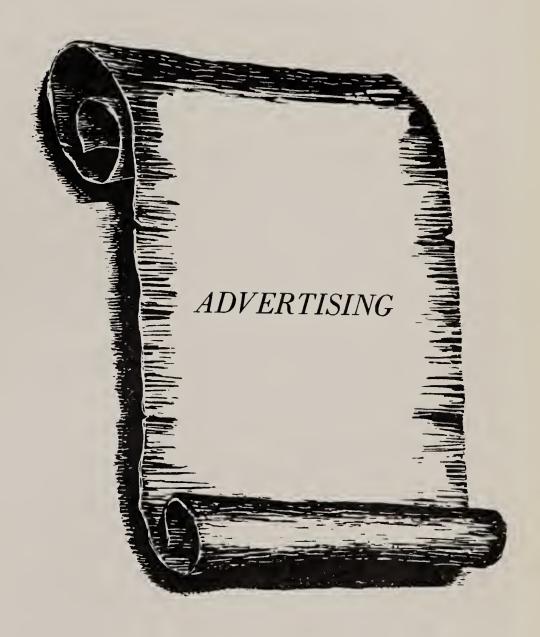

Sunglasses and smiles

signs and sounds . . . faces reflect them all.
The faces tell the story.
The faces record its chapters.
Everywhere there are faces . . . some happy, some solemn with thought, some sad . . . but always they are there.

Our sincere thanks to the following people who helped in making the '74 Raider possible . . .

I asked God for strength, that I might achieve,

I was made weak, that I might learn humbly to obey . . .

I asked for health, that I might do greater things...

I was given infirmity, that I might do better things...

I asked for riches, that I might be happy,

I was given poverty that I might be wise . . .

I asked for power, that I might have the praise of men,

I was given weakness, that I might feel the need of God...

I asked for all things, that I might enjoy life,

I was given life, that I might enjoy all things . . .

I got nothing that I asked for - but everything I had hoped for,

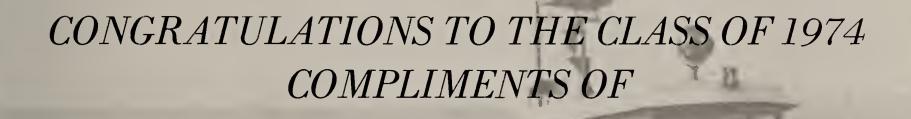

Almost despite myself, my unspoken prayers were answered.

I am among all men, most richly blessed.

"Join the Navy" provides one of the best opportunities available.

A lot of the important things young people need today they can find in the Navy. A sense of purpose and dedication. Scholarships to help them through college. And an opportunity to get specialized schooling and on-the-job training and experience in a broad range of Navy occupations. Occupations that could pay off handsomely in civilian life. Joining the Navy gives young men and women a chance to discover the world. And to discover themselves. So, if you know any young people who qualify, why not suggest a visit to the local Navy recruiter. He's prepared to discuss the opportunities available in today's Navy.

Tune me into the wild side of life, I'm an innocent young child sharp as a knife, Take me to the garretts where the artists have died, Show me the court rooms where the judges have lied.

Let me drink deeply from the water and the wine, Light coloured candles in dark dreary mines, Look in the mirror and stare at myself, And wonder if that's really me on the shelf.

Take me down alleys where the murders are done, In a vast high powered rocket to the core of the sun, Want to read books in the studys of men, Born on the breeze and die on the wind.

If I were an artist who paints with his eyes, I'd study my subject and silently cry.
Cry for the darkness to come down on me,
For confusion to carry on turning the wheel.

And each day I learn just a little bit more, I don't know why but I do know what for, If we're all going somewhere let's get there soon, This song's got no title just words and a tune.

129 Liberty Street Central Falls, R.I. The 1974 RAIDER represents the efforts of the entire staff to create a book with which the class of 1974 can identify. We have experienced a great deal of joy and frustration in its creation, but we feel it has been well worth the effort.

A special thank you goes to our advisor, Mr. Richard LaMothe, who gave so generously of his time and without his advice and co-operation this book would not have been possible.

We would like to extend our appreciation to Mr. Arnold Lohmann of Taylor Publishing Co. for his help in compiling the contents of the 1974 RAIDER.

We wish to thank Mr. Joseph Geoffroys of Brown Studios, who photographed many events which appear throughout the book. A thank you to Mr. Kenneth Day who also aided us with his photography.

We hope the book will be a source of enjoyment to all who remember the class of 1974.

BOB DYLAN'S DREAM

While riding on a train goin' west,
I fell asleep for to take my rest,
I dreamed a dream that made me sad,
Concerning myself and the first few friends I had.

With half-damp eyes I stared to the room Where my friends and I spent many an afternoon, Where we together weathered many a storm, Laughin' and singin' till the early hours of the morn.

By the old wooden stove where our hats were hung, Our words were told; our songs were sung, Where we longed for nothing and were quite satisfied Talkin' and a-jokin' bout the world outside.

With haunted hearts through the heat and cold, We never thought we could ever get old.
We thought we could sit forever in fun
But our chances really were a million to one.

As easy it was to tell black from white, It was all that easy to tell wrong from right. And our choices were few and the thought never hit That the road we traveled would ever shatter and split.

How many a year has passed and gone, And many a gamble has been lost and won, And many a road taken by many a friend, And each one I've never seen again.

I wish, I wish, I wish in vain,
That we could sit simply in that room again,
Ten thousand dollars at the drop of a hat,
I'd give it all gladly if our lives could be like that.
